Being lively interested in performative practices, LA CHAMBRE BLANCHE is very happy to collaborate with artist and curator Marie-Claude Gendron for her project Se suivre. Centered on exchange and innovation, Se Suivre offers a series of performative events generating a focal point and a meeting spot for sixteen artists from different generations. Paired by the curator, intergenerational duos of artists could collaborate, nurture each other's practices and put together original performances. During three convivial evenings, on September 20th, 26th and 27th 2013, Quebec public will have the pleasure to witness the result of the project. Publications from participating artists will be sold on site.
